

Kristine McLeod Emerging Indigenous Leader Award

Please send your completed Nomination Form to premiersawards@gov.nt.ca.

Please include Kristine McLeod Emerging Indigenous Leader Nomination in the subject line.

Thank you for taking time to nominate an individual for a Government of the Northwest Territories (GNWT) Kristine McLeod Emerging Indigenous Leader Award. With the support of the Gwich'in Tribal Council this award was created to honour the memory of Kristine McLeod, a young leader who contributed so much to the health, wellness, culture, and education of the Gwich'in Nation and the Northwest Territories (NWT).

As the nominator, it is important you read and understand the following Kristine McLeod Award Nomination Guidelines:

- Only nominations received by the deadline will be considered for the Kristine McLeod Award. Nominations received after the deadline will not be considered, and will be returned to the nominator.
- Each year, a maximum of one (1) individual can be awarded the Kristine McLeod Award.
- Nominators must check with nominees before nominating them to ensure they agree with being nominated.

KRISTINE MCLEOD EMERGING INDIGENOUS LEADER AWARD NOMINATION FORM

1. NOMINATOR (YOU) INFORMATION

NOMINATOR NAME: _____

EMPLOYER: _____

WORK NUMBER: _____

EMAIL _____

How are you affiliated with the nominee?

Supervisor

Co-worker

Client or beneficiary of their work

Other:

2. NOMINEE INFORMATION

NOMINEE NAME: _____

ORGANIZATION: _____ POSITION TITLE: _____

WORK NUMBER: _____

EMAIL _____

3. NOMINEE SUCCESSES

Using the space provided on the next page, please describe why the nominee(s) is an excellent candidate for a Kristine McLeod Emerging Indigenous Leader Award by identifying how they satisfied each of the criteria below: (1000-1500 words)

1. Invite challenge and challenge others in a positive manner, promote and try new ideas and encourage colleagues to think boldly to implement new ways of doing business.
2. Inspire and enable others through a spirit of collaboration, trust, human dignity, and recognition of individual contributions.
3. Model the way by creating standards of excellence and setting an example for others to follow.
4. Respect, preserve and maintain knowledge, innovations and practices of Indigenous and local communities embodying traditional lifestyles.

Note

Nominees should be Indigenous NWT residents who:

- Are in the early stages of their career (between five and ten years) with a community, territorial, federal, or Indigenous government; or
- Have been recently elected to a leadership position with a community, territorial, federal, or Indigenous government.

4. SIGNATURE OF NOMINATOR

Nominator Signature

Date

Thank you for taking the time to nominate a deserving employee for the Kristine McLeod Emerging Indigenous Leader Award. Please send your completed nomination form to premiersawards@gov.nt.ca.