

CCAF-FCVI Inc. is the new full name that was changed in 1980 from the Canadian Comprehensive Auditing Foundation—La Fondation Canadienne pour la Vérification Intégrée. The name was changed to recognize that the organization needed to move beyond auditing and deal with other aspects of governance and management that are essential to strong accountability, good stewardship, and well-performing organizations.

The Internal Audit Bureau, on behalf of the Government of Northwest Territories (GNWT), is one of the funding members of the CCAF. As such, GNWT staff can access the CCAF research material. All Deputy Minister and Assistant Deputy Ministers are provided access to the web site:

<http://www.ccaf-fcvi.com/english/index.html>

Other GNWT staff can be provided access based on the recommendation of the DM/ADM by contacting the Internal Audit Bureau.

CCAF sponsors the annual Government Internal Auditors Council of Canada conference. All provincial/territorial Chief Internal Auditors and the Federal Government Internal Audit official gather to share information on common issues.

On a regular basis, CCAF publishes research material such as:

- In Search of Effective Governance
- Governance Check-up – Guidance for Health Care Organizations: Issues, Responsibilities, Actions
- Information: The Currency of Corporate Governance
- Report of the Independent Review Panel on Modernizing Comptrollership in Government of Canada
