Department	Position Title
Finance	Communications Officer
Position Number	Community	Division/Region
15-11580	Yellowknife	Policy, Legislation and Communications / HQ

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

The Communications Officer supports the Departments of Finance and Executive and Indigenous Affairs (Departments) in the areas of evaluation and implementation of communications plans, policies, procedures, and products to ensure the Departments' communications are strategic, effective, and consistent with Government of the Northwest Territories (GNWT) guidelines.

The Communications Officer is responsible for the provision of communications planning advice to departmental staff and senior management; and assessing policy and program proposals from a communications perspective for the Departments.

SCOPE

Located in Yellowknife and reporting to the Manager, Public Affairs and Communications within the Policy, Legislation and Communications Division, the Communications Officer provides communications advice and support on the web, publications, communications planning, and media relations to departmental managers and staff.

The incumbent works closely with policy staff and program officers to support the overall communications strategy within the Departments. The incumbent also proactively supports the consistent, timely and effective communication of finance and human resource initiatives, programs, policies, and services to a broad stakeholder base including but not limited to the public, GNWT managers and employees, senior management groups and human resource staff.

This position helps develop innovative and creative solutions to communication challenges and opportunities. The position will take a proactive approach to departmental communications and support developing solutions, both alone and in collaboration with colleagues. The position also ensures that the Department's websites and print material meet departmental policies and guidelines, as well as the GNWT Visual Identity Programs and Official Languages Policy.
