

IDENTIFICATION

Department	Position Title
Finance	Encumbrances/Collections Officer
Position Number	Community	Division/Region
15-1529	Yellowknife	Taxation, Corporate Credit and Collections/HQ

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

The Encumbrance/Collections Officer is responsible for credit and collections activities related to timely collection of all monies due to the Government of the Northwest Territories (GNWT) to maximize cash recovery in accordance with the Financial Administration Act and Regulations, Student Financial Assistance Act and Regulations, Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, Consumer Protection Act and Regulations, Debt Collection Practice Regulations, Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, Commissioner's Land Act and Regulations, Union of Northern Workers Collective Agreement, Canada Revenue Agency Refund Set-Off Program, Creditors' Relief Act and other relevant legislation, regulation and procedures.

SCOPE

Reporting to the Manager, Corporate Credit and Collections (CCC), the Encumbrances/Collections Officer is based in Yellowknife. The Officer is responsible for minimizing the loss of government assets through credit and collection services and facilitating collection of government receivables in the most effective manner within the associated rules, regulations and policies.

The Officer determines the most effective collection strategies such as issuing formal demands for payment and negotiating repayment schedules in compliance with industry accepted standards and GNWT Acts, Regulations and Policies. The incumbent performs Para-legal functions such as exercising the right of set-off, payroll deductions and/or initiating legal collection action. The incumbent also administers all encumbrances including setoffs, assignments, third party demands all accounts transferred to private collection agencies and the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency.

The Officer works with finance and program managers of departments, boards and agencies.

The incumbent also deals extensively with the public at large in attempting to collect on overdue accounts. Individuals' awareness and understanding of financial obligations and technicalities vary greatly, resulting in the need to offer information and advice in a manner appropriate to each situation. Cross-cultural and language differences also can complicate collection efforts.

The ability of the Officer to support effective and timely collections and to work with affected parties to develop mutually supportable repayment options has a significant impact on the ability of the GNWT to collect overdue accounts with a minimum of administrative and legal expenses.

The impact of the work of the Corporate Credit Collections section is valued at $28.5 Million in delinquent accounts receivable. Annual active file loads of the incumbents of are in excess of 400 files.
