

IDENTIFICATION

Department	Position Title
Justice	Relief Corrections Officer
Position Number	Community	Division/Region
82-10414	Yellowknife	Corrections/North Slave Correctional Complex

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

The Relief Corrections Officer supervises incarcerated persons in accordance with operational standards established in the NWT Corrections Service Division, in order to provide safe and secure custody, rehabilitation of persons in custody and to facilitate their reintegration into their communities. As part of the facility operations team the incumbent will ensure the ongoing provision and enforcement of policy and services in accordance with the Corrections Mission, Vision and Value statement.

SCOPE

- Reports to Deputy Warden
- One of several similar positions reporting to a shift supervisor.
- Works in any post as assigned.
- All posts are subject to rotation within the Complex.
- Supervises up to 48 persons in custody.
- Participates in the orientation, training and mentoring of new employees.
- Is a Peace Officer while on duty.
- Work is carried out subject to the provisions of the Criminal Code (Canada), the Charter of Rights and Freedoms, the Youth Criminal Justice Act (Canada), the Youth Criminal Justice Act (NWT), the Prisons and Reformatories Act (Canada), the Corrections Act (NWT), the Public Service Act (NWT), policies such as the Corrections Service Directives, Facility Standing Orders and the Human Resource Manual.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. To ensure a safe and secure setting that contributes to a safe and healthy living environment for persons in custody while ensuring the safety of public and staff.

- Assisting in or completing intake and discharge functions.
- Responding to persons in custody requests, complaints or allegations, and exercising decision-making authority in these matters where appropriate.
- Directly supervising persons in custody activities, enforcing rules and standards of behavior in doing so.
- Participating in scheduled persons in custody activities and meetings, observing and assessing persons in custody behavior and intervening when appropriate.
- Scheduling and supervising recreational activities.
- Observing and collecting information and writing various reports on recommendations of security, safety, personnel issues, incidents, accidents, and persons in custody, behaviour/progress and other operational issues as requested or required.
- Assessing on a daily basis, persons in custody needs, behaviours, and interactions with others.
- Monitoring, recording and reporting persons in custody movements within and outside the facility.
- Distributing bubble pack medication as per Nurse/Pharmacist instructions.
- Transporting pharmaceuticals and laboratory samples in accordance with facility standing orders.
- Escorting and transporting persons in custody on visits, to court, to community outings, etc.
- May be required to use physical force or the use of tactical equipment within the established legal and policy framework.
- Planning and conducting unit inspections for the purpose of identifying and resolving safety, security and health concerns.
- Planning and conducting unit searches and frisks of persons in custody for the purpose of maintaining contraband control and ensuring facility security and integrity is maintained.
- Applying consequences, monitoring behavior and documenting outcomes.
- Participating in or delivering relevant staff training.
- Mentoring new staff to competently perform frontline role.
- Adhering to staff dress and deportment standards to reflect professional standards and adherence to health and safety regulations.
- Maintaining knowledge in respect of interpreting legal documents and persons in custody finances to ensure adherence to the intake/release process, policies and procedures.
- Assisting with crisis intervention in all areas of critical incident management at the - facility.

- Following institutional security and safety procedures.
- 2. To supports case management and programs, within established guidelines, in order to prepare persons in custody for reintegration into society by.
- Providing support to facility programming for persons in custody in order to facilitate opportunities for persons in custody to address their criminogenic needs.
 - Providing input into persons in custody case plans through documentation of positive and negative relationships, impact of programs on persons in custody's ability to apply skills and knowledge within the corrections environment.
 - Completing initial persons in custody risk assessments.
 - Interacting with persons in custody to understand and monitor their progress in all facets of institutional programming.
 - Writing progress reports and notes on running records.
 - Providing input to case managers and makes recommendations that may impact case plans with respect to persons in custody progress.
 - Assisting with support to persons in custody case management and reintegration plans.
 - Orientating and assisting persons in custody in accessing programs.
 - Counseling and supports persons in custody as required.
 - Supporting case managers in the application of policy and procedures, in order to prepare persons in custody for reintegration into society.
 - Supporting, participating in or planning persons in custody activities (i.e. programs, recreation, volunteer/community service, on the land program, discussions on sexuality, drug and alcohol discussions, etc.) as required thus providing persons in custody with opportunities for behavioral change.
 - Assisting in writing persons in custody progress and court reports, making recommendations on assigned persons in custody for court and community workers.
- 3. To manage persons in custody to assist in motivating persons in custody to contribute to a safe and secure working environment by.
- Facilitating individual and unit meetings to provide persons in custody with clear communications and appropriate direction relevant to policy and procedure covering safety, security, health and operational matters.
 - Acting as a positive role model for persons in custody.
 - Leading and directing responses in emergency situations or critical incidents.
 - Performing personal observations of persons in custody performance, reviewing running records and reports, recommending appropriate programs to persons in custody and to case managers.

- Addressing behavioural issues in a constructive manner.
- Communicating with other facility staff on persons in custody issues to ensure group involvement and knowledge is solicited.
- Assisting in the provision of resident and facility services within established guidelines.

WORKING CONDITIONS

Physical Demands

Physical confrontations with persons in custody, who are high risk, who may be highly emotional or agitated due to mental, physical stress or under influence of substances, occurs approximately 1-3 times per month, usually with a high degree of intensity.

Environmental Conditions

The incumbent works in a secure environment where there can be exposure to communicable diseases, this rate of exposure increases when the incumbent is engaged in direct intervention with persons in custody.

Sensory Demands

The incumbent must use the combined senses of sight, touch, and hearing simultaneously to maintain an awareness of their working environment to prevent potentially disruptive and dangerous incidents from occurring (i.e. illegal substances, searches, persons in custody groupings/gangs).

Mental Demands

The incumbent will be required to interact with persons in custody who are agitated and are the subject of a variety of court-imposed conditions resulting in potentially hostile and unpredictable behaviour that poses a significant safety risk. Further, the incumbent works in a secure environment that, isolated by its nature, results in exposure to high-risk situations. Incumbent may be subject to phone calls and direct disruptions to family life during off-duty hours.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES

- Leadership and team building skills.
- Ability to act appropriately during crisis/stressful situations.
- Knowledge of and ability to assess human behavior and persons in custody issues.
- Problem solving and decision making skills.
- Interpersonal skills with demonstrated verbal and written English communication skills.
- Ability to work in a diverse environment.
- Knowledge of corrections policies and procedures.

- Knowledge of practical corrections techniques and theories (i.e. social deviance, mental health, etc.) with the ability to exercise sound judgment in application (use of restraints, non-violent crisis intervention, suicide and self-harm intervention).
- Ability to interpret court documents (i.e. warrant of committals, fine defaults, remand warrants etc.).
- Knowledge of and ability to use MS Operating Systems, MS Office, and Internet and E-mail applications.
- Knowledge of Occupational Health and Safety (WHMIS).
- Ability to commit to actively upholding and consistently practicing personal diversity, inclusion and cultural awareness, as well as safety and sensitivity approaches in the workplace.

Typically, the above qualifications would be attained by:

Grade 12 Diploma or Equivalency (i.e. GED) combined with successful completion of the NWT Corrections Northern Recruitment Training Program or equivalent training program from another jurisdiction.

Equivalent combinations of education and experience will be considered.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Some requirements (*) will be requested at the time of a verbal job offer, and physical requirements will be assessed by a physician prior to issuance of a written offer of employment.

- Satisfactory Vulnerable Sector check*
- Class 4 drivers' license*
- First Aid certification*
- Acceptable hearing acuity
- Acceptable ability to speak clearly, loudly and quickly
- Acceptable mobility, strength, endurance and balance
- Acceptable visual acuity
- Acceptable ability to distinguish odours

Position Security (check one)

- No criminal records check required
- Position of Trust – criminal records check required
- Highly sensitive position – requires verification of identity and a criminal records check

French language (check one if applicable)

- French required (must identify required level below)

Level required for this Designated Position is:

ORAL EXPRESSION AND COMPREHENSION

Basic (B) Intermediate (I) Advanced (A)

READING COMPREHENSION:

Basic (B) Intermediate (I) Advanced (A)

WRITING SKILLS:

Basic (B) Intermediate (I) Advanced (A)

French preferred

Indigenous language: Select language

Required

Preferred