Department	Position Title
Justice	Staff Lawyer III, Criminal
Position Number	Community	Division/Region
82 -13409	Yellowknife	Legal Aid Commission

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

The Charter of Rights and Freedoms provides that people who have significant interests at stake in the justice system are entitled to state-funded counsel. Staff lawyers give legal advice and represent persons accused of a criminal offence, protect and assert their legal rights and interests, and fulfill the obligations imposed by the Charter and the Legal Aid Act.

SCOPE

The Legal Aid Commission is established by the Legal Aid Act to provide to qualifying Northwest Territories (NWT) residents authorized legal advice and services.

Located in Yellowknife, the Staff Lawyer III, Criminal reports to the Executive Director, Legal Aid Commission of the NWT and will be required to: work independently on cases of increasing complexity as assigned by the Executive Director; attend court in communities throughout the NWT and at all three levels of court; complete assignments with limited supervision; provide thorough opinions on the merits of applications for legal aid particularly in the area of criminal appeals including reference to the relevant law, ensuring that the opinions provide a clear basis for the Executive Director's decision to fund applications; supervise and act as mentor to more junior staff lawyers or as a principal to articling students as directed by the Executive Director; and manage client files.

Staff Lawyers employed by the Legal Aid Commission adhere to the Mission of the Department of Justice to protect and promote the rights and safety of all people in the NWT with efficient and responsive justice programs and services.

The practice of criminal defense work in the NWT requires a robust and intentional approach to maintaining personal wellness. Staff lawyers are frequently exposed to factual situations wherein social difficulties are a factor including violence, substance abuse, and mental health issues.

RESPONSIBILITIES
