Please include Dave Ramsden Career Excellence Nomination in the subject line.

Thank you for taking time to nominate a deserving GNWT employee for a Government of the Northwest Territories (GNWT) Dave Ramsden Career Excellence Award! This award recognizes the outstanding achievements of individuals who have served 20 years or more in the Government of the Northwest Territories public service. The goal of this award is to recognize individuals who have committed their careers to public service.

The successful candidates must meet and are evaluated on all of the following criteria:

- Served twenty years or more in the GNWT Public Service and have been an employee of the GNWT during the previous 12 months
- Made a significant contribution to public service through outstanding performance and a positive impact on public service delivery in the NWT
- Consistently shown outstanding dedication in their work while maintaining a high level of commitment to public-service values and ethics, such as respect for others, integrity, and professionalism
- Demonstrated their contribution through leadership and transparency
- Served as a role model and inspiration for other employees in their dedication to excellence and advised, trained, or coached others in a way that motivates colleagues to excel

As the nominator, it is important you read and understand the following guidelines:

- Nominations received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- All nominated employees must be employed by the GNWT at the time of the nomination, or at the time the work occurred.
- Self-nominations are not accepted.
- Nominators must have nominee permission before completing the nomination form.
