

Have your say: NWT Sugar-sweetened drinks tax

The Government of the Northwest Territories committed to investigate introducing a “sugary drinks” tax as a way to reduce sugar consumption and improve public health. This has led to a proposal to introduce a sugar-sweetened beverages tax to reduce sugar consumption in the Northwest Territories as part of the public health initiative to reduce obesity and improve oral health.

Fill out this survey to provide your input on the GNWT’s proposed sugar-sweetened drinks tax. You can return it by:
